SUBJECT: Hiring of Teacher I for DOLE-DepEd's "Sa 'Pinas, Ikaw ang Ma'am at Sir" Employment Program for Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs)

DATE: October 5, 2015

1. In line with the pronouncement of President Benigno S. Aquino III during his visit to the Filipino community in Madrid, Spain last 14 September 2014 on giving assistance to professional teachers who worked as Household Service Workers (HSWs) in other countries, the Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE), in collaboration with the Department of Education (DepEd), the Commission on Higher Education (CHED), the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC), and the Philippine Normal University (PNU), has launched "Sa 'Pinas, Ikaw ang Ma'am at Sir," a program aimed to provide HSWs abroad the opportunity to find employment as teachers back in the Philippines.
2. Upon evaluation of the OFW applicants endorsed by DOLE, we have identified individuals who have passed the LET and have taught within the last five (5) years; hence, they no longer need to take refresher courses. As this is a special program, all applicants under the program (as identified in Annex A) shall automatically be given permanent Teacher I items and be assigned to schools with shortages (also specified in Annex A) this SY 2015-2016.

MEMORANDUM

3. The identified applicants will be notified by the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Planning & Development to submit their documentary requirements to the respective schools division offices (SDOs).
4. Moreover, SDOs are hereby instructed to assess these teachers through interview and demonstration teaching. Once weaknesses are identified, SDOs shall address the noted gaps appropriately through the conduct of teacher trainings and/or other apt interventions deemed necessary.
5. The items for this program will be requested from the Department of Budget and Management (DBM) within the next few weeks.
6. Strict compliance to this memorandum is desired.
